JUNIOR LEAGUE OF NORTHERN WESTCHESTER IS NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

The Junior League of Northern Westchester (JLNW) is pleased to announce that it is again accepting applications for the Mary Hughes Sakraida Award for Community Service. The award, in amounts up to $1,000, is given to high school seniors who have a strong record of volunteer service and who either live, attend school or perform community service in Northern Westchester.

Mary Hughes Sakraida, who at the time was President of the Junior League of Northern Westchester, established the award in 2001. It was later renamed in her honor and memory.

Since its inception the JLNW has bestowed 28 awards, totaling more than $28,000. “We are happy to support and recognize these outstanding high school seniors who embody the Junior League’s mission of promoting voluntarism and improving communities,” said Kiersten Marich, President.

Interested high school seniors may obtain an application through their guidance office, by calling the Junior League of Northern Westchester at 914/234.4714 and leaving a detailed message with their name, address, and phone number or by emailing the JLNW at: info@jlnw.org. The application is also posted under Community Projects on the League’s website at www.jlnw.org under the Community Impact tab. Completed applications must be received by Tuesday, March 30, 2010.

Anyone wishing to make a tax-deductible contribution to support this and other JLNW programs may do so by mailing a check to the Junior League of Northern Westchester, P.O. Box 229 Bedford, NY 10506.

The Junior League of Northern Westchester is a non-profit volunteer organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action of leadership of trained volunteers.
